Numb 4080

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday December 14 to Monday December 18. 1704.

St. James's, Decemb. 16.

THe following Addreſs from the County of Pembroke was preſented by Sir Arthur Owen Baronet, Repreſentative in Parliament of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and other Freeholders of the County of Pembroke.

MADAM,

THough late, we come humbly to beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſties moſt glorious Succeſs obtained againſt the French and Bavarian Troops, which hath put a ſtop to the growing Power of France, by the prudent Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough, yet our Joy is equal to the forwardeſt of Your Subjects, and heartily wiſh, that Your Parliament, by their Unity and Diſpatch, ſo wiſely recommended to them from the Throne, may improve the preſent Advantages to Your Majeſty's entire Satisfaction, and the Common Good of Europe; being well aſſured, that nothing (under God) but Your Majeſty's Auſpicious Reign can make Your People happy at home, and formidable abroad; which may Heaven long continue, are the earneſt Prayers, of, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Arundel was preſented to Her Majeſty by their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's Ancient Corporation and Borough of Arundel.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants, of Your Majeſty's Ancient Corporation of Arundel, humbly beg Leave to Congratulate the happy Progreſs of Your Majeſty's Arms, under the wiſe Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough; Your ſignal Victory over the United Forces of France and Bavaria at Hochſtet, as will render You Terrible to Your Enemies: So we hope the good Conſequences of it here will be to ſtifle Factions among our ſelves.

We cannot but Congratulate Your Majeſty in the Succeſs of Your Fleet, though not with ſo great and entire a Victory; yet in the wiſe Conduct and Courage of Your Admiral, and Bravery of Your Officers, as to make Your Enemies Retreat, though ſo much Superiour in Number: Which Advantage will ſhew Your Majeſty's Arms Victorious, and terrifie as much as a compleat Victory, and be of as great a Conſequence.

How much theſe Succeſſes abroad are owing to a wiſe, ſteddy, and frugal Management at home, the moſt contracted Sight may readily diſcern.

We hope Your Majeſty will accept our Zeal to Your Sacred Perſon with the ſame Integrity as if we had been ſpeedier in our Addreſs; and believe we are as entirely Devoted to Your Majeſty as the earlieſt Addreſſes.

We beſeech God to pour down his Bleſſings on Your Councils, and grant us the Felicity of Your long and happy Reign over us.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, the 22d day of October, 1704.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Colthurſt Eſq; the Steward; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Derby, Lord Lieutenant of the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Steward, Deputy-Steward, and the reſpective Juries, Miniſters, Officers, with other Gentlemen, and Suitors, at the Courts held at the Caſtle of Cliderow, for the Honour of Cliderow, in the County of Lancaſter; and at the ſeveral Manours to the ſame belonging, in October, in the Third Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, Annoq; Domini 1704.

AMongſt the reſt of Your Majeſty's Loyal and Obedient Subjects, permit us to approach Your Royal Preſence with our Submiſſive and Congratulatory Addreſs.

Humane Affairs receive their Directions from an Allwiſe and Omnipotent Being, and therefore (guided by Your Majeſty's moſt Pious Example) for Your great and ſignal Victory by Land, and Succeſs at Sea, we in the firſt place return to Almighty God all poſſible Praiſe and Thankſgiving.

And next to Your Majeſty, in whom the great End and Deſign of Government both in Church and State, are compleatly anſwered; for You Rule by an unerring Law at home, and give it where it is wanting abroad: You have in a great meaſure reduc'd the Exorbitant and Threatening Power of France: Your Armies have been Victorious over that lofty Aſſyrian the Monarch thereof: 'Tis to Your powerful and ſeaſonable Aſſiſtance, that Princes and States, nay, the Empire it ſelf, owes Preſervation: Your Wiſdom hath guided You to the Choice of that excellent Perſon the Duke of Marlborough for Your General, the Glory of whoſe Performances admits of no Example: In return of all which, we faithfully aſſure Your Majeſty, that You Reign in as well as over us: Ages therefore to come, as we do now, will call You Great; and ſo (Madam) will You be eſteem'd till time it ſelf ſhall be no more.

A very Dutiful and Loyal Addreſs from the General Aſſembly of Her Majeſty's Iſland of Barbadoes, has been preſented to Her Majeſty by the Agents of the ſaid Iſland.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Venice, Decemb. 6. N. S. Our Senate appears very much diſſatisfied with the Imperialiſts poſſeſſing themſelves of Salo, and the French of Dezenzano, both Places ſituate on the Lake di Garda, and within the Territories of this Republick: They have ſent Expreſſes to their Miniſters at the Imperial Court and that of France, with Orders to make their Complaint of this Proceeding; And a conſiderable Reinforcement has been ſent to the Gariſon of Breſcia to ſecure it againſt any Attempt of this Nature. General Davia, a very active and experienced Officer in the Imperial Army, died lately in the German Quarters of a Wound he had received in a Rencounter between a Party under his Command, and one of French Horſe. By a Felucca lately arrived from Cattaro, we have Advice of Proveditore-General Delfino's being arrived there the 12th of the laſt month from the Morea, with 11 Gallies belonging to this State; and that General Du Hamel, who had the Chief Command of the Venetian Forces in thoſe Parts, is lately dead. Letters from Meſſina bring Advice, That the Magazine of the Caſtle of Siracuſa, where the Gun-Powder was kept, being ſet on Fire by Accident, it blew up, and wholly deſtroyed the ſaid Caſtle, with all the Gariſon.

Falmouth,